People who have close relationships with others tend to be happier. One study by found that the number of happy people in one's life could increase happiness in a person in a predictable manner. Each happy person in a person's life increased their chances of being happy by 9 percent [source: Christakis and Fowler].

If you want to pass the exam tomorrow you must stay in and study the night before instead of going out with friends. Finally, it is all a matter of "happy today vs happy tomorrow".
