Headway is a multi-level course for adults and young adults who want to use English both accurately and fluently. Grammar and vocabulary are taught and explained thoroughly, and all four languages skills are systematically developed. The Headway series combines traditional methods of language teaching and pore recent communicative approaches. Together, Headway Intermediate and headway Upper-Intermediate bring the student up to the level of Cambridge First Certificate. John and Liz Soars have many years of experience as teachers and teacher trainers. Both have worked et International House, London, and Liz was one of the chief examiners of the Cambridge/RSA Dip TEFL. Each level of Headway provides approximately 120 hours of teaching. Key features of Headway Intermediate include: Comprehensive coverage of the tense system and verb forms. Detailed treatment of grammar in two stages: first within the unit where it is introduced, and secondly, in a fuller version suitable for self-study and revision, in the Grammar section at the back of the book. Highly systematic skills development work. Authentic material and tasks to boost students' confidence in dealing with real English. This Workbook provides intensive extra practice and includes exercises to develop accuracy, systematic vocabulary work, and extra help with writing. It can also be used for self-study. New Headway Beginner is aimed at absolute beginners, or those who have learned a little English but lack the confidence to build on it. It provides a solid foundation for New Headway Elementary. Its measured, step-by-step approach builds both skills and confidence. The right mix of language work and plentiful practice material enables learners to consolidate their knowledge of key points before proceeding further. The clearly defined grammatical syllabus includes past, present and future time and provides a thorough basis on which to build. The presentation of new language is gradual, methodical and clearly structured, giving learners a clear sense of progression. The vocabulary syllabus focuses on high-frequency survival terms and avoids overload. The gradual introduction of simple skills work with manageable communicative activities give learners a sense of achievement. 'Everyday English' practises social expressions in common situations and shows how learners can apply their knowledge in practical ways.

New Headway: Intermediate Fourth Edition: Workbook with iChecker with Key OUP Oxford

The listening and reading texts are drawn from a range of authentic sources. An in-depth treatment of grammar enables students to work out grammatical rules and helps them achieve greater accuracy through a better understanding of how language works. There is a thorough skills syllabus, with all four skills systematically developed and integrated through related tasks. There is extensive work on vocabulary, with particular emphasis on the most frequently used verbs, phrasal verbs, idioms, and compounds. Integrated pronunciation practice is provided throughout. 'Postscript' sections provide an opportunity to practise everyday English in situations (such as airports and hotels), or survival areas (such as telephones and directions). There is a particular focus on the grammar of spoken English. The topics - including homelessness, pre-nuptial agreements, and the effects of tourism - have all been chosen to appeal to adults and young adults.
