Heaven has received a lot of attention in recent years as bestselling books and movies have told the stories of people who claim to have been there. But what does the Bible actually say about heaven? What difference does it make? What happens the moment after we die? What will our relationships be like in heaven? Chip Ingram sets aside the hype and myths and digs into the Scriptures to discover what God actually wants us to know about the hereafter. Most importantly, Ingram shows why our understanding of heaven matters now, in this life. Because what we believe about heaven actually affects us today in ways we may not have imagined.

Even companies committed to jabbing—patiently engaging with customers to build the relationships crucial to successful social media campaigns—want to land the punch that will take down their opponent or their customer's resistance in one blow. Right hooks convert traffic to sales and easily show results. Except when they don't. Heaven Is for Real Thomas Nelson  New-1st Release-(April 2014)-I just want to say this is not the actual Heaven is for Real book-I made it look similar, so you would know the book is in reference. I will also share with you my own NDE (Near Death Experience) in detail. I only share this, because it has a whole lot to do with what I believe Colton Burpo actually experienced. These are Colton Burpo's own words from a live TV interview that was videotaped and archived, so there can be no denying its truth. You can go view the video for yourself so you don't have to take anyone else and their word for it. I will provide a link at the bottom of this page. Marilyn Hickey, asked Colton, "Did you see God when you were in Heaven (Hickey, 2011)?" Colton Burpo said, "Um, I did see God, but he pretty much looked like Gabriel he was just a larger version (Hickey, 2011)." Todd Burpo abruptly intervenes and Colton quickly looks to his dad and his dad (with what some may perceive as leading) says, "A much larger version...right (Hickey, 2011)?" 19:20 min into 28 min video. Colton says, "But, what Gabriel and God looked like is they had yellow hair that went down to their shoulders, um blue eyes, a really bright smile, a golden sash, white robes, but God's wings were the biggest. See those wings and you'd be amazed. Okay look at this, another interview where Colton says that he didn't even see God's face he was so big. So, did he see God's face, or didn't he see God's face? 10:20 into the video (Host): "You were meeting a lot of nice people, weren't you (Colton shakes his head) and then Jesus and God? Tell us about Jesus, tell us about God that you remember." Colton: "Well, with Jesus, he has a rough kind face..." (Host): "In the book, you don't spend a lot of time describing God, but you simply said he is big" Colton: "Big" (Host): "And that was your impression, I mean do you, did you remember any facial characteristics, or were you that close to him?" Colton: "Um, you really couldn't see his face since he was so big, but he was just this huge angel with massive wings." Colton actually says that the paperback (trade) book, "Heaven is for Real" is his dad's story, his dad's book, but the Heaven is for Real kid's version is his story. The host of Praise the Lord on TBN was talking to Colton about the kid's book version of Heaven is for Real and how it has its own rackspace and display in the store. About 48:15 min into the interview (Praise the Lord Host): "This is kinda like your book, a chance for you to express. Talk to me about this book." Colton, "Well, the kids book it's more for kids, it has a lot of pictures in there, but the trade book (looked towards his dad kinda matter-fact-attitude) was more my dad's story. Now, the kid's book is my story... So, it gives you more of an insight on what Heaven is." Click the links to go to the videos Hickey, M. (2011, October 19). FaithWords #1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER • From the author of Is Everyone Hanging Out Without Me? and creator of The Mindy Project and Never Have I Ever comes a hilarious collection of essays about her ongoing journey to find contentment and excitement in her adult life. "This is Kaling at the height of her power."—USA Today In Why Not Me?, Kaling shares insightful, deeply personal stories about falling in love at work, seeking new friendships in lonely places, attempting to be the first person in history to lose weight without any behavior modification whatsoever, and believing that you have a place in Hollywood when you're constantly reminded that no one looks like you. In "How to Look Spectacular: A Starlet's Confessions," Kaling gives her tongue-in-cheek secrets for surefire on-camera beauty, ("Your natural hair color may be appropriate for your skin tone, but this isn't the land of appropriate—this is Hollywood, baby. Out here, a dark-skinned woman's traditional hair color is honey blonde.") "Player" tells the story of Kaling being seduced and dumped by a female friend in L.A. ("I had been replaced by a younger model. And now they had matching bangs.") In "Unlikely Leading Lady," she muses on America's fixation with the weight of actresses, ("Most women we see onscreen are either so thin that they're walking clavicles or so huge that their only scenes involve them breaking furniture.") And in "Soup Snakes," Kaling spills some secrets on her relationship with her ex-boyfriend and close friend, B.J. Novak ("I will freely admit: my relationship with B.J. Novak is weird as hell.") Mindy turns the anxieties, the glamour, and the celebrations of her second coming-of-age into a laugh-out-loud funny collection of essays that anyone who's ever been at a turning point in their life or career can relate to. And those who've never been at a turning point can skip to the parts where she talks about meeting Bradley Cooper.

WARNING: This is not the actual book Heaven is for Real by Todd Burpo & Lynn Vincent. Do not buy this Summary, Review & Analysis if you are looking for a full book. Todd Burpo is a Christian pastor who details the stories his son told in the months following his surgery. This summary of Heaven is for Real breaks down each chapter into easy-to-digest nuggets of information. After surgery, Colton tells detailed stories of Heaven. He talks of people he couldn't possibly know, such as his miscarried sister. He claims to have not only met Jesus, along with his colorful horse, but he also claims that he met angels, Mary, and even his great-grandfather as a young man. This summary brings all this and more together, while also offering short biographies of the authors involved. Critics counter with the fact that there is no medical data to back any of this up, but true believers don't care: Heaven is for Real. Colton said he met his miscarried sister, whom no one had told him about, and his great grandfather who died 30 years before Colton was born, then shared impossible-to-know details about each. He describes the horse that only Jesus could ride, about how "reaaaally big" God and his chair are, and how the Holy Spirit "shoots down power" from heaven to help us. Told by the father, but often in Colton's own words, the disarmingly simple message is heaven is a real place, Jesus really loves children, and be ready, there is a coming last battle. Heaven Is for Real Crossway

Experience the wonder of child prodigy Akaine Kramarik's divinely inspired artwork firsthand. Akiane's nonreligious parents were bewildered when their four-year-old daughter started sharing her dreams of angels, heaven, and Jesus. Her spiritual insight quickly expressed itself through impressive sketches, drawings with oil crayons, paintings, and eventually poetry, and her artwork began a conversation that brought her whole family to the attention of national media. Akiane: Her Life, Her Art, Her Poetry shares the young artist's story in rich detail, including her mother's firsthand account of Akiane's emerging faith and artistic talent; a collection of full-color paintings created by Akiane from ages 4 to 10, along with the amazing stories that surround each piece of art; and selected poems of profound beauty and insight, authored by Akiane in her childhood. This book will encourage any who believe in the spiritual nature of art and reinvigorate the faith of those who call Jesus their savior.
