Carmella knows that painting their room will be a lot of work. Therefore, she asks Temira where she got her information and what evidence her sources had for their conclusion. She also wonders if there might not be another reason that people with blue rooms have higher grades—for example, maybe smart people prefer the color blue.

Whether poised at a river bend or cruising the coastline with slow, deep wingbeats, the Great Blue Heron is a majestic sight. This stately heron with its subtle blue-gray plumage often stands motionless as it scans for prey or wades belly deep with long, deliberate steps. They may move slowly, but Great Blue Herons can strike like lightning to grab a fish or snap up a gopher. In flight, look ...

The body's stores of adenosine triphosphate (ATP) - the body's main source of energy - are also depleted, so following any last-second twitches, your muscles will totally relax, including sphincter. This means if your bowels were full at the time of death, they won't be for very long. (We told you this would be morbid.)
