Initiate innovation and get things done with a guide to the process of academic change Change Leadership in Higher Education is a call to action, urging administrators in higher education to get proactive about change. The author applies positive and creative leadership principles to the issue of leading change in higher education, providing a much-needed blueprint for changing the way change happens, and how the system reacts. Readers will examine four different models of change and look at change itself through tendifferent analytical lenses to highlight the areas where thecurrent approach could be beneficially altered. The book accountsfor the nuances in higher education culture and environment, andhelps administrators see that change is natural and valuable, andcan be addressed in creative and innovative ways. The traditional model of education has been disrupted by MOOCs,faculty unions, online instruction, helicopter parents, and muchmore, leaving academic leaders accustomed to managing change. Leading change, however, is unfamiliar territory. This bookis a guide to being proactive about change in a way that ensures ahealthy future for the institution, complete with models and toolsthat help lead the way. Readers will: Learn to lead change instead of simply "managing" it Examine different models of change, and redefine existingapproaches Discover a blueprint for changing the process of change Analyze academic change through different lenses to gain awider perspective Leading change involves some challenges, but this useful guideis a strong conceptual and pragmatic resource for forecasting thosechallenges, and going in prepared. Administrators and faculty nolonger satisfied with the status quo can look to ChangeLeadership in Higher Education for real, actionable guidance ongetting change accomplished.

Similarly, practicing physical education teachers who are interested in developing a stronger focus on SEL in their teaching will find that the book provides a comprehensive resource to guide their professional learning and practice. Teaching with AI World Scientific Nowadays, the concept of SDGs (Sustainable Development Goals) is starting to replace the concept of MDGs (Millennium Developmental Goals). It is a global goal adopted by all United Nations member states. It emphasizes the idea that the development of every country can only be achieved by balancing other factors such as social, economic, and environmental sustainability. It is already clear how sustainable development works with environmental ethics and management. However, there are still issues regarding the sustainable development and human well-being. Sustainable development should focus on finding a way for society to meet their present needs for the long term without sacrificing the ability of future generations to meet their needs. This international seminar provides research results and literature regarding the topic of sustainable development concept, the dynamics of sustainable development and social change, and environmental sustainability. The international seminar, entitled 1st International

Aligning Student Support With Achievement Goals

REDSHINE Publication

The purpose of this plan is to lead the way forward for Manatee County Schools. Manatee County Schools will become a top tier School District in the State of Florida. "...a viable, executable and measurable strategic plan is a necessity for any organization to achieve and sustain a high level of performance. Effective strategic plans aligned at all levels, provides organizations with a clearly defined vision and focus, and perhaps most importantly – an unambiguous guideline as to how to utilize and expend resources... To be effective, strategic plans must be clearly communicated. Everyone in the school district must know where the district is going; what their role is in moving the district forward; how success will be monitored; and how the district's resources will be directly tied to achieving those results.”

This is an open access book. As a leading role in the global megatrend of scientific innovation, China has been creating a more and more open environment for scientific innovation, increasing the depth and breadth of academic cooperation, and building a community of innovation that benefits all. These endeavors have made new contribution to globalization and creating a community of shared future. To adapt to this changing world and China's fast development in this new area, the 2nd International Conference on Internet, Education and Information Technology (IEIT 2022) is to be held in April 15-17, 2022. This conference takes “bringing together global wisdom in scientific innovation to promote high-quality development” as the theme and focuses on research fields including information technology, education, big data, and Internet. This conference aims to expand channels of international academic exchange in science and technology, build a sharing platform of academic resources, promote scientific innovation on the global scale, improve academic cooperation between China and the outside world. It also aims to encourage exchange of information on research frontiers in different fields, connect the most advanced academic resources in China and abroad, turn research results into industrial solutions, bring together talents, technologies and capital to boost development.aaaa
