Homicide in Hardcover hat mir zwar ganz gut gefallen, über vieles habe ich mich aber auch immer wieder aufgeregt. Brooklyns Reaktion auf Dereks Nähe und seine Figur im allgemeinen passten eher in einen Groschenroman. Erfrischend neu ist das Hippie-Milieu über das immer wieder berichtet wird. Ihre Eltern leben noch immer in der Kommune.

Has Homicide in Hardcover turned you off from other books in this genre? No, just from this writer. I noticed she also writes romance fiction and seems to forget which genre she is in. I am reading for the mystery, not for a bodice ripper romance. She can't seem to help herself when introducing a new character.

Being a hardcore literary geek and book collector, the irony was not lost on Carlisle that the first Bibliophile Mystery, Homicide in Hardcover, was published in paperback only. She prefers to think of books as physical objects that become works of art, and she would love to put together beautiful leather-bound, gilt-edged, illustrated versions of her books.
