Hot Rocks by Nora Roberts - Fantastic Fiction

Nora Roberts can apparently write about anything: movie stars, ranchers, vampires, and, in Hot Rocks, diamond thieves. And do so effortlessly. She has a formula - you get that after reading several of her works - but when the reading is as buttery as it was in this yarn, does it matter?

In the back room of her store, she poured two cups of coffee and knew she was about to lie to a man she considered a friend. And deny all knowledge of one she'd loved. She did her best to steady herself, ran her hands through the damp mass of bright red hair normally worn in a shoulder-sweeping bob.
