"Love at first sight is something for fairy tales. It doesn't last in real life." Olivia Statler hates Logan Hayes. It's not the fact that he's an executive of a rival travel company, or the fact that he's trying to buy her company, or even the fact that he won't leave her alone. Two years ago, the two of them seemed to have something that was amazing and real, but Logan's ego got in the way. When a new resort offers her an all-expense-paid trip to woo new clients, she figures that a working vacation is just what she needs. As the youngest CEO in the travel business, she's honored and flattered. However, she isn't the only executive that the resort invited. When Olivia sees the broad shoulders and blonde hair of Logan Hayes, her heart races. Half of it is raw sexual attraction, half of it is anger at what he did to her. Logan is determined to reignite their past spark, but Olivia does everything possible to avoid him. However, a hurricane strikes and traps them on the island, making it impossible to ignore the changed man in front of her. Only a storm as powerful as their passion will show them love or hate. Can romance survive the storm — or will their hurricane kisses be swept away forever? “ Everything you hate was done by my father. I don't want your company. ” His brown eyes were flames, and my soul was the moth. I couldn't have escaped from his gaze if I had been blinded. He moved close enough that those eyes were all I could see. “ I want you. ” I blinked twice. That was not what I was expecting. His words startled and excited me, but before my brain could analyze and process them, his hand was around the back of my neck and his lips were on mine. His mouth was hot and insistent as he pressed it against mine. I fought for a moment, but his grip was too strong and his kiss too sweet. It was a kiss I had craved for two years and had tried to convince myself I could do without. I wanted to give in to him completely, but I was still too angry to budge even an inch. Instead, I just stood there like a statue as he kissed me. I was furious and turned on beyond anything I could imagine. After a moment, he pulled back and searched my face. “ What was that for? ” I surprised myself with the amount of venom in my voice. His kiss had sent want scorching down into the very marrow of my bones, but I needed someone to be angry with, and he was the closest person. He had hurt me. His eyebrows came together above those beautiful eyes. Hope fell as he saw something in my expression that disappointed him. Without thinking, I put my hand on the back of his neck and pressed my mouth into his. He didn't hesitate, kissing me back with a need that matched my own. He pushed me up against the wall. Our tongues interlocked as we found the valve for the sexual tension that had been building between the two of us for the past two years. My body responded to his every touch with a fervor I couldn't contain. Didn't want to contain. I wanted it to consume us both...

the quintessential Girl-Likes-Boy-Who-Likes-Boys story. Naomi and Ely are best friends. Inseparable since childhood. Naomi is straight. Ely is gay. Naomi dates guys who she claims to like. They're okay, but she likes Ely more. To protect their feelings, Naomi and Ely created a No Kiss List—a list of people neither of them is allowed to kiss under any circumstances. Naomi's latest boyfriend Bruce isn't on that list. But he probably should have been. Because when Ely kisses Bruce, it breaks Naomi's heart. The result? A rift of universal proportions. Can these best friends come together again, or will this be end of Naomi and Ely: the Institution? Told in alternating voices using an array of emoticons and symbols by co-authors Rachel Cohn and David Levithan, co-author of WILL GRAYSON, WILL GRAYSON with John Green (THE FAULT IN OUR STARS), NAOMI AND ELY'S NO KISS LIST is the ultimate offbeat story about leaving room for every kind of love.

The dictionary says that a kiss is 'a salute made by touching with the lips pressed closely together and suddenly parting them.' From this, it is quite obvious that, although a dictionary may know something about words, it knows nothing about kissing. In this rediscovered classic guide, originally published in 1936, Hugh Morris expounds on the wonderful ritual of osculation (better known as kissing). He explores why people kiss, how to prepare for a kiss, putting variety into your kissing, as well as some popular naughty kissing games. In his guide, you will discover a range of kisses, including the French Soul Kiss, the Eyelash Kiss, the Nip Kiss, the Dancing Kiss. You'll come away from this book wanting to discover the pain-pleasure of the Vacuum Kiss, include your friends in Electric Kissing Parties, and please your paramour with the Surprise Kiss! So, gird up your loins, pucker up your lips and let's to the kissing arena!

The Science of Kissing
Xlibris Us

The prospect of kissing someone for the first time is crazy-scary-exciting. For most of us, it marks a step into adulthood, the first validation of our appeal to the opposite sex. That first kiss will go down in your history of "firsts" and you want to be able to recall the memory fondly. I imagined my first kiss to look like the kissing scenes on TV, with a handsome and charming partner slowly leaning towards my coy yet expert lips. But first kisses seldom have the advantage of a seasoned director and cameramen zooming in at precise perfect angles the way they do on TV. By virtue of inexperience and any real knowledge, my first kiss was awkward and clumsy. But yours doesn't have to be! By learning how to kiss - and how NOT to kiss - in advance and prepping for that special moment, your first kiss can be oh-so-much-more graceful and sophisticated than mine was. For this short read, I'm going to be your personal kissing coach. We'll leave no stone unturned, and by the end of the book, you'll kiss like a pro. Sweet, yet smooth; excited, yet confident; romantic, yet racy. So pucker up and let's get started!

What do you do when you're the reigning kissing booth champion but the only person you want to kiss is your best friend's brother? Let me make this clear right here, right now: I, Halley Dawson, do not care that Preston Wright is kissing other women. Not a lick. Not at all. Nuh-uh-freakin'-uh. I do care that he's doing it six feet away from me behind a gaudy velvet curtain--making him my competition in this year's kissing contest. Why do I care, you ask? Because I've had an unfortunate crush on the insufferable idiot since I was sixteen years old, but I also know it's never going to happen. He's the Creek Falls bachelor to die for, and I'm the Creek Falls racoon lady who puts peanut butter sandwiches out for them every night. I'm not going to let him break my four-year-long reign--no matter how many times he breaks the rules and slides the curtain across to do the one thing he's not allowed to: Kiss me.

Long coop'd closely up, How could he see you, how converse, how win you? Whence rose your first acquaintance? Amar. Some months since, When my old guardian took me to his farm Near Palma, to enjoy the country air, As I look'd from the lattice one fine evening, A gallant cavalier came riding by: He seeing me, look'd up and bow'd, I curtsied, Lest he should think I had no breeding, girl; He bow'd again; what could I do but curtsy? I would not be thought rude. Phoebe. No, certainly, That would have been as cruel as ill-bred, I should have done the same. What followed this? Amar. Some interviews, at length, his art contriv'd, In spite of all my uncle's jealous care: For difficulties sharpen lovers' wits: But now 'tis near a fortnight, --two long weeks, And no device, no serenade, no letter; Evil I much forebode. Phoebe. Remov'd to Seville, Thus closely watch'd, old Bartolo, perhaps, May have found out the secret, tell me truly, Are you resolv'd to disappoint his wishes? Carlos his son, who is your promis'd husband, Is now expected home; which will you choose? Amar. O 'tis a dainty spark; I hate him, Phoebe, I always hated him, a double hatred, Both for his father's faults and for his own: Do they not keep me like a prisoner here To marry me, whether I would or no? My fortune is their object. One thing, Phoebe, --Had I a friend. Phoebe. Signora, I'm your friend. I've been in love myself, and pity all Whom little Cupid wounds. ' Amar. Alas! what's pity, Unless assistance aids it? Phoebe. Trust me mistress, And if I fail you, say no faith's in woman. Amar. Alas! all schemes are vain, unless we.
