Making paper beads is really easy. It just takes a little practice to get them to look symmetrical. After rolling them, add a finish and they will last a long time. The sealer will even protect them from water.

If you want to make larger beads just use longer strips of paper. Put some glue down one side of the paper strip and start rolling it around the toothpick. When the strip completely glues on itself, take it out of the toothpick and place it aside to dry. Repeat this step with each of the paper strips, until you have enough beads to thread on the yarn.
