How to Write a Speech - step by step help

When writing a speech in an English exam, always stay focused on the topic you have been asked to write about. Never derail from the subject of the speech you are writing. This will make you lose marks. This is why it is so important to plan your speech before you begin writing it. Think through the structure you are going to use and stick to it.

Writing with Writers: Speech Writing - Tips from the Pros

Remember that you're writing a speech, not an essay. People will hear the speech, not read it. The more conversational you can make it sound, the better. So try these tips: Use short sentences. It's better to write two simple sentences than one long, complicated sentence.

In writing a speech, repetition is the key to leaving an impression. Hammer home key words, phrases, and themes. Always be looking for places to tie back and reinforce earlier points. And repeat...
