Ten years ago, the sorceress Tasha lost her love. Now settled into the sleepy town of Curton, a mining town long past its prime, Tasha makes a living selling herbs and working as an apothecary. Those glory days of Curton seem to be distant memories, with the mines dry and the legendary Crow Queen gone now over a generation. Today, Tasha's fine. While pursuing the abductors, Tasha and her friend, the Knight-Captain Lady Aveline, discover an abandoned mine housing a greater threat to Curton that could unleash primal chaos to sunder the land anew. Calliome's past becomes its present as Aveline musters allies and Tasha struggles to discover the Crow Queen's secrets before agents of this chaos destroy everything? and everyone. Summer of Crows is a standalone novel set in the World of Calliome by award-winning author Hans Cummings.

Knuckleheads in the News

The Body Impolitic is a critical study of tradition, not merely as an ornament of local and national heritage, but also as a millstone around the necks of those who are condemned to produce it. Michael Herzfeld takes us inside a rich variety of small-town Cretan artisans' workshops to show how apprentices are systematically thwarted into learning by stealth and guile. This harsh training reinforces a stereotype of artisans as rude and uncultured. Moreover, the same stereotypes that marginalize artisans locally also operate to marginalize Cretans within the Greek nation and Greece itself within the international community. What Herzfeld identifies as "the global hierarchy of value" thus frames the nation's ancient monuments and traditional handicrafts as evidence of incurable "backwardness." Herzfeld's sensitive observations offer an intimately grounded way of understanding the effects of globalization and of one of its most visible offshoots, the heritage industry, on the lives of ordinary people in many parts of the world today.

Artisans and Artifice in the Global Hierarchy of Value

Find out about more than 70 cat breeds, including their origins and characteristics, in this pocket-sized encyclopedia. This catalogue packs a whole lot of information into your pocket! Along with a photo of each breed, discover the facts and stats of each cat, including its size, where the breed originated, colors and markings, and unusual features or behaviors. You'll soon be able to tell apart a Burmese from a Siamese; a rex from a sphynx and a manx; and an American shorthair from a British shorthair. You will also discover a lot about colors and patterns. Did you know that tabby cats and tortoiseshells are not breeds, but colors within breeds? Plus there are pages introducing cat anatomy and behavior; and the book finishes with fun facts. The style of the Pocket Eyewitness series is perfect for all children, from reluctant readers who can easily digest the key points through to budding vets and cat-lovers who want to know more about the best pets on the planet. Cats with facts: what more could anyone want? Become Fluent in Less Than 30 Days Using a Proven Scientific Method Applied in These Language Lessons. Practice Vocabulary, Conversation & Grammar \(series 3\) Low-tech Magazine underscores the potential of past and often forgotten technologies and how they can inform sustainable energy practices. Sometimes, past technologies can be copied without any changes. More often, interesting possibilities arise when older technology is combined with new knowledge and new materials, or when past concepts and traditional knowledge are applied to modern technology. Inspiration is also to be found in the so-called "developing" world, where resource constraints often lead to inventive, low-tech solutions. Contains 159 images in black & white.
