The Book of R is a comprehensive, beginner-friendly guide to R, the world's most popular programming language for statistical analysis. Even if you have no programming experience and little more than a grounding in the basics of mathematics, you'll find everything you need to begin using R effectively for statistical analysis. You'll start with the basics, like how to handle data and write simple programs, before moving on to more advanced topics, like producing statistical summaries of your data and performing statistical tests and modeling. You'll even learn how to create impressive data visualizations with R's basic graphics tools and contributed packages, like ggplot2 and ggvis, as well as interactive 3D visualizations using the rgl package. Dozens of hands-on exercises (with downloadable solutions) take you from theory to practice, as you learn: – The fundamentals of programming in R, including how to write data frames, create functions, and use variables, statements, and loops – Statistical concepts like exploratory data analysis, probabilities, hypothesis tests, and regression modeling, and how to execute them in R – How to access R's thousands of functions, libraries, and data sets – How to draw valid and useful conclusions from your data – How to create publication-quality graphics of your results Combining detailed explanations with real-world examples and exercises, this book will provide you with a solid understanding of both statistics and the depth of R's functionality. Make The Book of R your doorway into the growing world of data analysis.

Earth Before the Throne

My main purpose in writing this book is to show how different things may have been created or will take place in reality and prepare for it. Some of the things that we believe in may have already taken place. If things have taken place that pertains to our salvation, then we need to believe them. The main thing that we need to do is to be prepared and help others to meet Christ at his coming, or when we die. That should be the desire of all of us that follow Christ. I believe the First Resurrection started at the resurrection of Christ and will end at his coming. You must believe this because Christ paid the price in full by dying on the cross.
