Book Review: 'I Served The King Of England' By Bohumil ... Bohumil Hrabal's I Served the King of England is a beautiful, sparse, simply told story about a little man named Ditié. Ditié is a little man in the sense that he is small in stature. He is also little in the sense that he is merely a waiter, a little man who wanders blithely through the critical historical events that buffeted Czechoslovakia between 1935 and 1950 or so.
