Format: Kindle Edition Verified Purchase I, Zombie is a study in lack of control and the inability to prevent the horrific acts you see yourself about to commit. New York City is full of Zombies. They're your typical zoms, pursuing the living, catching them ripping them to shreds and eating the juiciest parts.
[PDF] I, Zombie Book by Hugh Howey Free Download (222 pages)
Hugh is relating his thoughts on human behavior, mostly speaking from his personal experiences and observations. The first part of the book is thought-provoking discussion. The second part is written as an informal memoir, relating stories from his travel experiences. I enjoyed both parts.

I've always been a fan of Samuel Peralta's Future Chronicle anthologies, and when I discovered he included one devoted to the zombie apocalypse (The Z Chronicles), I instantly bought it and enjoyed it so much, I later purchased three (3) novels that were excerpted from that anthology, including this book by Hugh Howey (whose short story "Gloria" originated from here).

I Zombie Kindle Edition Hugh
Of all the zombie novels I've ever read, this one is the most gut wrenching because it tells everything from the zombie's point of views, captives inside a rotting prison unable to control the horrifying violence they inflict upon the living survivors within a post-apocalyptic New York City.
