The short story writers featured in this brief anthology – all established figures on the Italian literary scene – have been specifically chosen as being representative of the various geographical regions in the Italian peninsula, ranging from Ginzburg, Pavese and Soldati (Piedmont), Colombi Guidotti and Guareschi (Emilia Romagna region), Tozzi (Tuscany), D'Annunzio (Abruzzi region) and Moravia (Lazio region) to Pirandello and Verga (Sicily) and Deledda (Sardinia). Twelve of these literary masters' very best novelle – richly diverse both thematically and stylistically – can be read in the original, unabridged Italian with parallel English translations, accompanied by a brief account of the life and literary achievements of each writer, as well as a few notes on the context in which the narrative was written and some relevant features of theme and content. The novelle themselves, originally published in Italy between 1880 (marking the publication of Verga's La lupa) and 1971 (the year of the publication of Soldati's Una donna comprensiva), span almost a whole century. Although presented in chronological order of publication – being self-contained racconti – they can be read in any order. All of them lend themselves to the leitmotif of the collection: that of a woman as the central character (D'Annunzio's Candia, the Princess in Deledda's fairy-tale, Pirandello's Mommina, gn à Pina in Verga ' s story, etc.). Two of the writers, Grazia Deledda and Natalia Ginzburg, are themselves women writing about women. The anthology, on the one hand, offers readers the opportunity to savour a few delights of Italian literature and culture, and, on the other, promotes effective language learning through a wide spectrum of language and styles. While remaining faithful to the originals, the translations lay emphasis on readability and fluency, thus making their perusal a pleasurable experience in itself. In addition, the stories in this collection will certainly stimulate further interest in Italian literature.

Subject Catalog Il libro del mareLaw, Labour, and EmpireComparative Perspectives on Seafarers, c. 1500-1800

Seafarers were the first workers to inhabit a truly international labour market, a sector of industry which, throughout the early modern period, drove European economic and imperial expansion, technological and scientific development, and cultural and material exchanges around the world. This volume adopts a comparative perspective, presenting current research about maritime labourers across three centuries, in the Mediterranean Sea and the Atlantic and Indian Oceans, to understand how seafarers contributed to legal and economic transformation within Europe and across the world. Focusing on the three related themes of legal systems, labouring conditions, and imperial power, these essays explore the dynamic and reciprocal relationship between seafarers' individual and collective agency, and the social and economic frameworks which structured their lives.

Da sempre l'uomo vive un legame profondo con il mare, un "personaggio" che nei millenni ha assunto molteplici volti. In questa evocativa raccolta, la voce autorevole di Guido Davico Bonino naviga attraverso i simboli e i significati del mare schiusi dai pi ù grandi autori di tutti i tempi: dagli ignoti del Libro dell'Esodo a Omero, da Marco Polo a Dante, da Shakespeare e Montaigne fino a Leopardi, Stevenson, Kipling e Proust, per finire con la Deledda, Marinetti e Garc í a Lorca.

Tuffandosi in caposaldi della letteratura quali il Paradiso perduto, Robinson Crusoe e Il conte di Montecristo, Davico Bonino ci guida in un'incredibile traversata che tocca le corde pi ù intime dell'animo umano, alla scoperta delle varie incarnazioni di Poseidone. Accogliente o minaccioso, romantico o giocoso, mortale o fecondo, il mare in tutte le sue sfumature anima poesie, novelle, resoconti di viaggio e romanzi indimenticabili, spesso incarnando le sfide interiori che gli uomini di ogni tempo si trovano ad affrontare, così come la sete di conoscenza e il bisogno di avventura che anima lo spirito di tanti letterati e delle loro storie immortali.

The Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies is a two-volume reference book containing some 600 entries on all aspects of Italian literary culture. It includes analytical essays on authors and works, from the most important figures of Italian literature to little known authors and works that are influential to the field. The Encyclopedia is distinguished by substantial articles on critics, themes, genres, schools, historical surveys, and other topics related to the overall subject of Italian literary studies. The Encyclopedia also includes writers and subjects of contemporary interest, such as those relating to journalism, film, media, children's literature, food and vernacular literatures. Entries consist of an essay on the topic and a bibliographic portion listing works for further reading, and, in the case of entries on individuals, a brief biographical paragraph and list of works by the person. It will be useful to people without specialized knowledge of Italian literature as well as to scholars.
