The fact that BioWare is remastering the original Mass Effect trilogy underscores its focus on the series. The 4K remasters could bolster interest in the series ahead of a possible/likely sequel.

Impossible: The Companion Trilogy by Julia Sykes

Overall, a good trilogy. The focus was much more on the emotional side of BDSM than on the details, but both aspects were fairly accurate. There was a plot hole that bugged me near the end (no details so as not to post spoilers). It just didn't make any sense to me. Lynn Barrington does a fantastic job narrating Impossible.
