In Certain Circles - Wikipedia
Partners. Like Harrower ' s first novel, Down in the City, and The Watch Tower, In Certain Circles is set in Sydney. Like them, it is concerned with differences in class and opportunity, especially the ways in which these come to play out in a marriage. Unlike them, however, it has a central female character who initially recalls Jane Austen ' s Emma,...

Elizabeth Harrower
(born 8 February 1928
in Sydney, Australia)
is an Australian
novelist and short story writer. She has been considered "one
of the great novelists of Sydney". [2] Much
of her work tackles
the theme of domestic abuse , particularly
the psychological
abuse of vulnerable
women at the hands of
their manipulative,
deceitful and
tyrannical male
partners.
