"In Memoriam to Identity" (1990) is inspired by the writings and lives of Rimbaud and Faulkner; in one passage, she rewrites Faulkner's "The Kathy Acker blows me away. She has influenced many writers, and is among the most important postmodernist authors.

In Memoriam to Identity : Kathy Acker : 9780802135797 CK: By the mid-'90s, Kathy hit a wall, both creatively and in terms of her career, that must have been very painful. Her last two novels, Empire of the Senseless (1988) and In Memoriam of Identity (1990) had not been well received, at least not critically or within the literary world, in NY or London. She was living in San Francisco, drifting further to the margins of what she'd previously considered central.
