The Prophet (peace be upon him) was an orphan, Allah sheltered him. For the rest of the life, the Prophet was generous with the poor and needy. Spiritual teaching emanating from these is valid for each human being: never forget one ' s past, one ' s trials, one ' s environment and origin, and to turn one ' s experience into a positive teaching for one self and for others.

So this is what I wanted to do when I wrote "In the Footsteps of the Prophet" to come to the very essence, not to deal only with facts, but with meanings and understandings; objectives and a vision. I found out that justice is a means for a higher objective, and I found that the very essence and objective of Islam is peace.

Our beloved Prophet Abraham, nicknamed the friend of God, who had prayed nights at a time for a son, was now faced with the task of giving him up. Yet, looking back, we know of God ' s reward for Prophet Abraham ' s sacrifice.

Truly, the secret of sacrifice is that it always produces reward, if not in this life, in the next.
