International Trade & Study Guide:
Feenstra, Robert C . . .

International trade has a rich history starting with barter system being replaced by Mercantilism in the 16th and 17th Centuries. The 18th Century saw the shift towards liberalism. It was in this period that Adam Smith, the father of Economics wrote the famous book 'The Wealth of Nations' in 1776 where in he defined the importance of specialization in production and brought International trade under the said scope.

Applying this idea to international trade leads us to the conclusion that goods should be produced for which the cost of production is lowest. In a more complex model though, producers can produce many different goods. Often times, if a producer chooses to produce one good, he or she must give up the opportunity to produce another good.
