Into the Wild by Jon Krakauer chronicles the true story of Christopher McCandless. Following his college graduation, McCandless decided to travel into the wild, which ultimately leads to his untimely death. By the time he graduates from Emory University, McCandless has family, money, a degree, and a car, and decides to give it all up.

Into the Wild begins not with the birth of its main character, or even with the beginning of the journey that the book will trace, but with an important turning point late in Christopher McCandless's trip through the American West: his final encounter with another human before he enters the Alaskan wilderness.
