Her humour isn't subtle, or clever or even especially witty. It's just straight out funny. I think part of it's her voice which, even saying "is it just me?"

Miranda was head and shoulders above them (no pun intended). I have only laughed out loud twice while reading comedy books. First with 'Where's Poppa' by Carl Reiner and this one by Miranda. To me, Miranda is the funniest comedian out there today. Bar none. I just wish more of her work was available here in the United States.
