Star Wagon L300 If you say "Mitsubishi Delica" in the U.S., most enthusiasts will picture the iconic third-generation model. Its futuristic '80s styling, forward control driving position (e.g. you sit atop the engine and wheels with no hood), and tall stance make it instantly recognizable.

I know a lot of people dig the L300 model, and they do have a higher milage Chamanoix for a fair chunk less, but I prefer the newer body style. So now the questions for which I'm sure y'all have answers: what are the benefits or the ride of one style verses the other? Thanks . feetforbrains (Redirected from Mitsubishi L-300) The Mitsubishi Delica is a range of cabover vans and pickup trucks designed and built by the Japanese automaker Mitsubishi since 1968. It was originally based on a cabover van and pickup truck introduced the previous year, also called the Delica, its name a contraction of the English language phrase Delivery car.
