Sarah Kernochan

(Author of Jane Was Here) About Sarah

Kernochan: I decided to be a writer at age 14. And the subject of

reincarnation,

endlessly

fascinating to me,

is very much present. Jane Was

Here is a fun, suspenseful novel

that is brimming to the edge with twists and turns.

Jane Was Here by Sarah

Kernochan - Goodreads

Author: Sarah Kernochan. My

Review: Caroline Moss is a troubled young autistic woman who suddenly reawakens, insisting that she is Jane – not Caroline.

Piecing together a long ago lived past, “ Jane ” travels to Graynier to confront her murderer. Brett, a 30-something father, and his estranged son, Collin, get caught up in Jane ’ s quest.

Sarah Kernochan (Author of Jane

Was Here)

"Sarah Kernochan's second novel, Jane Was Here, has an insane premise -- that the presence of one young woman can literally cause the past and the future to collide in real time and space. How Kernochan, the writer of the film 'What Lies Beneath,' pulls it off, and she does, is nothing short of magic.

See Jane break the world wide open."
