Jonathan Friesen centers around Sam, a gifted runner and soon-to-be high school graduate whose Tourette's has kept him apart from almost everyone in his small town. He is frequently picked on by some of the other kids at his high school, and emotionally abused by his step-father, Old Bill.

Listen to Jerk, California Music ... Debut author Friesen has Tourette syndrome, and he brings complexity and nuance to Sam's struggle for understanding and self-acceptance. The pacing is leisurely, but like any good road story, there are enough corners and bends to keep readers eagerly anticipating what lies ahead at the journey's end ...
