Notes, Critical and Dissertatory, on the Gospel and Epistles of St. John by ... R. Shepherd. [With the Text.] ... A New Edition. [Edited by the Author's Son.] Visible Ink Press

Asking questions was central to the life and ministry of Jesus Christ. During the time that He walked among us, Jesus of Nazareth asked over 300 questions. Considering how much dialogue is actually recorded in the gospels, this seems like a lot. In fact, Jesus used questioning so much that sometimes He even preferred answering questions with a question of His own. In context, these questions are directed to the religious leaders of the time, His disciples, and the on-looking crowds. On a much grander scale, Jesus asks these questions as if He is having a one-on-one conversation with you and me thousands of years later. This book is going to help you get face-to-face with the Savior of World. He has asked questions that cut to the heart of our fears, our hopes, and our imaginations. If we are open to Him, He will affectionately guide us to deeper meaning, spiritual fulfillment, lasting joy, and a life that keeps on living long after we are gone. John 10:27 states, "My [Jesus] sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me." The questions have already been asked and the answers await discovery for those who will embark on the journey. Throughout this book you will be met with ten of Christ's questions. They will act as a mirror into your motives, your wounds, your relationships, and your deepest desires. Keep a bible handy. You'll be needing it a lot! Sounds exciting right? Are you ready to be questioned by Christ?

This and other titles, with the names of those that wrote the Gospels, are not the words of the Evangelists themselves. The Scripture itself nowhere teacheth us, which books or writings are to be received as true and canonical Scriptures. It is only by the channel of unwritten traditions, and by the testimony and authority of the Catholic Church, that we know and believe that this gospel, for example of S. Matthew, with all contained in it, and that the other books and parts of the Old or New Testament, are of divine authority, or written by divine inspiration; which made S. Augustine say, I should not believe the gospel, were I not moved thereunto by the authority of the Catholic Church: Ego evangelio non crederem, nisi me Ecclesiæ Catholicæ commoveret auctoritas.
