To answer this question, use details listed in the job description that made you want to apply. This can be duties listed in the job description, details about the company or something about the job that aligns with your career goals.

Example answer: "I've been working for several years on gaining skills in your industry."

Many interview questions and answers seek to evaluate whether or not a job is a good fit for a candidate. By asking you, " Why do you want to work here? " the interviewer is listening for an answer that indicates you've given this some thought and are not sending out resumes just because there is an opening.
