This work, divided into two volumes, is the study of the history of words in the Austronesian (An) languages—their origin in Proto-Austronesian (PAN) or at later stages and how they developed into the forms that are attested in the current An languages. A study of their history entails the reconstruction of the sound system (phonology) of PAN and an exposition of the sound laws (rules) whereby the original sounds changed into those attested in the current An languages. The primary aim of this work is to examine exhaustively the forms that can be reconstructed for PAN and also for the earliest stage after the An languages began to spread southward from Taiwan. For the later stages—that is, forms that can be traced no further back than to the proto-languages of late subgroups, we do not attempt to be exhaustive but confine ourselves to only some of the forms that are traceable to those times, treating those that figure prominently in the literature on historical An linguistics or those that have special characteristics important for understanding in general how forms arose and the processes that led to change. In short, the aim of this study is not just to reconstruct protomorphemes and order the reflexes according to the entries they fit under, but rather to account for the history of each form that is attested and explain what happened historically to yield the attestations. Volume 2 of the Proto-Austronesian Phonology is divided into four parts and contains a glossary, finder lists from the English translation, a bibliography, and an index.

Tidak mudah mempelajari dan memahami agama-agama yang ada di dunia ini. Dalam dunia akademis, bahkan ada bidang khusus yang mempelajari hal ini, yaitu ilmu perbandingan agama. Berbicara tentang perbandingan agama bagaikan sedang mengarungi samudra yang sangat luas, yang terlihat tidak berujung. Namun, harus tetap dijelajahi untuk melihat dan mengetahui keindahan dan keanekaragaman agama-agama tersebut. Ketika sedang menjelajahnya, ada rasa kekaguman yang menunjukkan kehausan dan kerinduan hati manusia untuk mencari Sang Ilahi. Secara garis besar, pokok yang dibahas dalam buku ini adalah asal-muasal agama, agama primitif, sampai agama modern, serta perkembangan konsepsi tentang kepercayaan kepada Tuhan. Agama modern yang dimaksud adalah di mana keagamaan manusia itu mulai mengagungkan rasio sehingga mulai mengarah pada penolakan akan keberadaan Tuhan.

Buku ini menjelaskan berhubungan budaya dan kepercayaan orang Batak Toba, misalnya: Konsep Roh Nenek Moyang dan Penyembahan Nenek Moyang. Yang menarik, dijelaskan akan konsep penciptaan sebagai karya dari dewata, yang dikenal dengan sebutan Ompu Mulajadi Nabolon. Karyanya dimulai dengan penciptaan bumi, yang kemudian bumi. Uniknya, manusia pertama diciptakan berpasangan, yang diberi nama Raja Ihat Manisia dan Boru Item Manisia, sebagai bayi kembar dari hasil pernikahan Raja Odap-odap dengan Siboru Deak Parujar, yang merupakan pasangan dewa dan dewi dari kayangan. Lima generasi berikutnya dari manusia pertama itu, lahirlah nenek moyang orang Batak, yang dikenal dengan SIRAJA BATAK. Dari Siraja Batak inilah yang melahirkan berbagai marga-marga dalam suku Batak. Adapun arti Batak itu sendiri adalah penunggang kuda yang lincah. Selanjutnya menjelaskan akan berbagai suku Batak, seperti: Batak Toba, Karo, Simalungun, Pakpak Dairi, Angkola, dan Mandailing, yang masih merupakan keturunan Siraja Batak. Hal yang menarik menjelaskan aka nasal mula sebutan marga. Ada beberapa marga yang unik sebutannya dan mengandung makna khusus. Ternyata suku Batak memiliki aksara tersendiri. Hal ini menunjukkan akan kekayaan budaya Batak. Ada dikenal sebutan “ Dalihan Natolu ”, sebagai bentuk kekerabatan. Dengan mengenal akan istilah ini, seseorang akan tahu akan posisinya; apakah sebagai paranak, parboru, atau hula-hula. Istilah ini akan terlihat jelas dalam adat pernikahan. Dalam pernikahan tersebut, ada pemberian ulos. Si pemberi dan si penerima ulos sudah ada ketentuannya dan jenis ulosnya juga bermacam-macam.

The Malay World of Southeast Asia Walter de Gruyter Before the first appearance of the Atlas of the World's Languages in 1993, all the world's languages had never been accurately and completely mapped. The Atlas depicts the location of every known living language, including languages on the point of extinction. This fully revised edition of the Atlas offers: up-to-date research, some from fieldwork in early 2006 a general linguistic history of each section an overview of the genetic relations of the languages in each section statistical and sociolinguistic information a large number of new or completely updated maps further reading and a bibliography for each section a cross-referenced language index of over 6,000 languages.

Presenting contributions from international scholars, covering over 6,000 languages and containing over 150 full-colour maps, the Atlas of the World's Languages is the definitive reference resource for every linguistic and reference library.

Weaving in the Batak region of North Sumatra is an ancient art practised by women, and exhibits some of the oldest design and technical features in the Indonesian archipelago. Since colonial annexation at the turn of the twentieth century, innovative Batak weavers from the Lake Toba region in northern Sumatra have successfully adapted their art to new economic and social circumstances but at great cost. In recent decades, weaving has fallen into decline and the tradition is threatened, while at the same time Batak textiles are highly prized in museum collections around the world. Legacy in cloth offers the first definitive study of the woven heritage of the Toba, Simalungun, and Karo Batak. The most complete analysis of Batak textiles ever published, it provides a record of more than 100 different design types, including archival and contemporary photographs showing how the textiles are woven and how they are used in Batak culture."

Language Structure and Environment is a broad introduction to how languages are shaped by their environment. It makes the argument that the social, cultural, and natural environment of speakers influences the structures and development of the languages they speak. After a general overview, the contributors explain in a number of detailed case studies how specific cultural, societal, geographical, evolutionary and meta-linguistic pressures determine the development of specific grammatical features and the global structure of a varied selection of languages. This is a work of meticulous scholarship at the forefront of a burgeoning field of linguistics.

The Fourth Industrial Revolution has the potential to raise global income levels and improve the quality of life for populations around the world. Technology development of AI, self-driving, big data, the Internet of things, and many digital revolutions have changed how people interact with each other. Therefore, developing a comprehensive and globally shared view of how technology is affecting our lives and reshaping our social, cultural, and human environments is essential. There has never been a time of more significant promise, or one of greater potential peril.

Today's decision-makers, however, are too often trapped in traditional, linear thinking, or too absorbed by the multiple crises demanding their attention, to think strategically about the forces of disruption and innovation shaping our future. The main goal of the conference was to provide an outlet for papers discussing the importance and impact of industrial revolution 4.0 to influence social aspect in human life. The proceedings consist of papers covering issues on psychology, law, communication studies, culture, religion, and literature. The proceedings will provide the latest research and constitute a concise but timely medium for the dissemination. The Proceedings of the 1st International Conference on Social Sciences Series (SOSCIS 2019) will be invaluable to professionals and academics in psychology, law, communication studies, culture, religion, and literature.

“ In a period where no native scholars of equal repute existed, where no one possessed similar levels of extensiveness and depth in terms of understanding Malay culture and literature, it must be admitted that the Orientalist stand taken by scholars like Winstedt was unavoidable. As a matter of fact, even today one can still find Malay scholars echoing his and other European Orientalists' opinions... ” Ahmat Adam * The Sejarah Melayu has been known by many names, and its text has changed too. Interpolations, recensions and revisions over the centuries have resulted in dozens of variants, which brings up many questions. Was Tun Seri Lanang the author of the text? Can the manuscript be regarded as an authoritative historical source? How entrenched are Orientalist views in contemporary scholarship of the Sejarah Melayu? The answers, as well as digressions into mystic letters and Portuguese loan words, can be found in this new collection of essays.
