Kate Remembered: Berg, A. Scott: Amazon.com: Books

A. Scott Berg's memoir, Kate Remembered - and please note that the author informs at the onset that this is a memoir, not an official biography - captures a Hepburn who is always on, always ready with a pithy one-liner, always capable of a grand gesture, but who never seems fake or dishonest.

I hoped that Scott Berg's tribute to his friend Katharine Hepburn would give me an insight into the life she was leading during the time Cindy came to know her and some insight into her past as well. I was not disappointed. This is an eminently readable and lovingly crafted tribute to a dear friend.
