These activities may include phonics work, sequencing activities, comprehension tasks, language games etc. If there is a teaching assistant in the classroom, they can either support the children in completing these supplementary activities, or take the lead in a guided reading session also. The Guided Reading Area.

Before Reading Activities. As the teacher, you'll choose an appropriate text for the group. Make sure it's at a slightly higher level than what they can read on their own. They should need your help. This is guided reading, after all. In advance, prepare a teaching point, discussion questions, and (if desired) an extension such as word work or guided writing.
