Want a

Hippopotamus

For Christmas.

The song "I Want a Hippopotamus for Christmas" was written in 1950 by

John Rox and became a nationwide hit in 1953 when ten-

year-old

Oklahoma native

Gayla Peevey

sang the song as a way to raise money for the

Oklahoma City

Zoo's first hippopotamus. In December of that year the city

received Matilda

the hippo for

Christmas.

Lullaby of Birdland

Hal Leonard Corporation

In this collection of interviews conducted by Mark Horowitz of the Library of Congress, musical theatre legend Stephen Sondheim discusses the art of musical composition, lyric writing, the collaborative process of musical theater, and how he thinks about his own work. A postlude features a more recent conversation with Sondheim.

For Stacy Horn, regardless of what is going on in the world or her life, singing in an amateur choir—the Choral Society of Grace Church in New York—never fails to take her to a place where hope reigns and everything good is possible. She's not particularly religious, and her voice is not exceptional (so she says), but like the 32.5 million other chorus members throughout this country, singing makes her happy. Horn
