Joyful Mending shows you how to fix old items of clothing, linens and household objects by turning tears and flaws into beautiful features. Simply by applying a few easy sewing, darning, felting, or crocheting techniques, as well as some sashiko and other favorite embroidery stitches, you can repair your favorite pieces in a transformative way. These techniques don't just save you money, but make your life more joyful, fulfilling and sustainable in an age of disposable "fast fashion." Author Noriko Misumi teaches you her philosophy of mending and reusing items based on the age-old Japanese concepts of mindfulness and Wabi Sabi (an appreciation of old and imperfect things). In her book, she shows you how to: Repair any kind of fabric that is torn, ripped or stained—whether knitted or woven Work with damaged flat or curved surfaces to make them aesthetically pleasing again Create repairs that blend in, as well as bold or whimsical visible repairs Darn your handmade or expensive gloves, sweaters and socks to make them look great again The joy to be found in working with your hands and the personal artistry you discover within yourself lie at the heart of this book. While nothing lasts forever, there's pleasure, as well as purpose, in appreciating age and imperfection. Joyful Mending allows you to surround yourself with the things that truly give you joy, whether they were given to you by a loved one, picked up in your travels or simply have a special place in your heart. Joyful Mending Architectural Acoustics Record your encounters with nature in this fantastic, interactive book! Kids can write about and draw the plants and animals they see. They can paste photos, postcards and feathers found on the ground. Plus, there is great info to learn about nature.

Ghosts of Sanctuary Villard Starting a new all star cheerleading season always makes for a lot of uphill battles. But, for Max Turner, the start of her third year at The TNT Force gym is her most difficult yet. Coming off of a second place win at The World Championship with her team Nitro, she is excited for her second year on a level 5 team.

Or at least she was. until she starts to see just how difficult the new season may prove to be. First and foremost, Max is faced with getting used to working with her still healing ankle as she tumbles, stunts and flies. But, more than that, she has to get used to working with a new stunt team, which includes a new base for partner stunts. This is a change she knew was coming, what she didn't expect was the distractions, confusion, and even stirring emotions that a new partner brings. With the competitive season quickly approaching, Max knows she needs to figure out how to get her focus under control, and fast! Nitro's reputation, Max's spot as center flier, and even her base's place on the team all hang in the balance as she works to navigate through the challenges and transformations of another year on the all star cheerleading mat.
