Sure, an embezzlement case might be boring—boring and Kylie don't mix—but Kylie feels for the octogenarian and pledges to right the wrong. She's certain that she can. She's just been promoted to Assistant PI of Starr Investigations, after all. When embezzlement turns to murder, Kylie is once again tossed into a situation she isn't prepared for, and her personal life isn't much better. Sexy Linc Coulter, her Newfoundland's trainer and her friend with benefits, is facing demons of his own. The colorful charts, graphs, and maps presented at the 1900 Paris Exposition by famed sociologist and black rights activist W. E. B. Du Bois offered a view into the lives of black Americans, conveying a literal and figurative representation of "the color line." From advances in education to the lingering effects of slavery, these prophetic infographics –beautiful in design and powerful in content–make visible a wide spectrum of black experience. W. E. B. Du Bois's Data Portraits collects the complete set of graphics in full color for the first time, making their insights and innovations available to a contemporary imagination. As Maria Popova wrote, these data portraits shaped how "Du Bois himself thought about sociology, informing the ideas with which he set the world ablaze three years later in The Souls of Black Folk."
