Tom Collins is a man leading a dual existence. His public persona is one that includes his wife, Susan, their children, his friends, and his business. The other is a private side, fueled by his secret relationship with the love of his life, Kate, who, like him, is in an unhappy marriage. After years of romantic weekends, stolen moments and warm embraces, Tom and Kate are forced to consider making their relationship public. As Tom's life is laid bare for all to see, he reflects on what brought him to live this life, the challenges he has faced along the way, and the methods he employs to keep the conflicting forces around him from destroying his world. Torn between the strength of his faith and the equally-strong yearnings of his heart, Tom must determine whether his perseverance is enough to continue with his unfulfilling marriage, or whether he is strong enough to let go and find a new way forward with the woman he truly loves. La Vie En Rose is the tale of this man.

Look back and recall. Which was your most dramatic, eventful, and emotionally packed phase of life? If I am not mistaken, you just rated the point when you had not yet completely left your childhood but were thrown unaware into adulthood! The time of transition from a child to an adult, the phase of confusion, of awkwardness, of superfluous, touchy ego, the phase of adolescence! What if someone promises to recreate this very intimate switch of your life? To intricately focus every feature of your growing-up awkwardness, of your sight of the first shooting pimple, and above all, your first experience of the fluttering feeling in the stomach, shooting pain in the heart, that sweet pain named love! Interested to indulge in some brimming nostalgia? Good for me, for I just won my first reader! Every adolescent contemplates that what he/she is experiencing is exclusive to him/ her; however, the truth is that the set of feelings that form his/ her core are shared not only by this person's own peers but also by the billions who passed before and the millions to come! Although each individual's emotions are special, I, as an author, have made an attempt to explore the general hue shared by those special people called the teenagers! The novella tries to catch the growing-up nervousness and excitement and finally the coming to terms with oneself via the three main characters, Javed, Manju, and Ajay.
