This anomalous American saga takes off when Alexandra Bradford unexpectedly meets Brian Levin in Hollywood at a screen test for the movie based on her book, Kiss of Life.

Attracted to each other almost instantly, the scene is set for a tempestuous romance. She is a successful black novelist, divorced, mature and beautiful, while he is white and Jewish, divorced, charismatically handsome and famous on the popular music scene.

Alexandra and Brian not only have to come to grips with their new, highly publicized relationship, but also with the challenges brought forth by their racial and religious differences—a feat which, even in modern America, can still be problematic despite the country's vast multicultural and multiracial diversity. This moving account chronicles their journey across the United States from California to Florida as Alexandra struggles to reconcile her devastating past with her desire to be with Brian, and as he attempts to cope with his longing for her love and his obscure anxiety. Ultimately, the intensity of their passion soars to an emotional climax in a boundlessly searing culmination.

Which was your most dramatic, eventful, and emotionally packed phase of life? If I am not mistaken, you just rated the point when you had not yet completely left your childhood but were thrown unaware into adulthood! The time of transition from a child to an adult, the phase of confusion, of awkwardness, of superfluous, touchy ego, the phase of adolescence! What if someone promises to recreate this very intimate switch of your life? To intricately focus every feature of your growing-up awkwardness, of your sight of the first shooting pimple, and above all, your first experience of the fluttering feeling in the stomach, shooting pain in the heart, that sweet pain named love! Interested to indulge in some brimming nostalgia? Good for me, for I just won my first reader! Every adolescent contemplates that what he/she is experiencing is exclusive to him/ her; however, the truth is that the set of feelings that form his/ her core are shared not only by this person ' s own peers but also by the billions who passed before and the millions to come! Although each individual ' s emotions are special, I, as an author, have made an attempt to explore the general hue shared by those special people called the teenagers! The novella tries to catch the growing-up nervousness and excitement and finally the coming to terms with oneself via the three main characters, Javed, Manju, and Ajay. Tom Collins is a man leading a dual existence. His public persona is one that includes his wife, Susan, their children, his friends, and his business. The other is a private side, fueled by his secret relationship with the love of his life, Kate, who, like him, is in an unhappy marriage. After years of romantic weekends, stolen moments and warm embraces, Tom and Kate are forced to consider making their relationship public. As Tom's life is laid bare for all to see, he reflects on what brought him to live this life, the challenges he has faced along the way, and the methods he employs to keep the conflicting forces around him from destroying his world. Torn between the strength of his faith and the equally-strong yearnings of his heart, Tom must determine whether his perseverance is enough to continue with his unfulfilling marriage, or whether he is strong enough to let go and find a new way forward with the woman he truly loves. La Vie En Rose is the tale of this man.

The autobiography of Paul Eisler, recounting his invention and pioneering of the printed circuit in the midst of the blitz on London during World War II. It ranges from a fascinating behind-the-scenes report of how the invention was used during the war to an examination of the patent system itself and the evolutionary process from idea to product. My Medicine Lectures Independently Published For courses in Music Theory (a two-year sequence including sight singing and ear training) as well as separate Sight Singing courses. Using an abundance of meticulously organized melodies drawn from the literature of composed music and a wide range of the world's folk music, Ottman provides the most engaging and comprehensive Sight Singing text on the market. Over fifty years ago, Robert W. Ottman set out to write a book that draws examples from the literature as opposed to being composed by the author. He proposed that students should work with "real" music as they study musical forms. The result was Music for Sight Singing. Not only is real music more enjoyable and interesting to sing than dry examples, but genuine repertoire naturally introduces a host of important musical considerations beyond pitch and rhythm (including dynamics, accents, articulations, slurs, repeat signs, and tempo markings). Several generations of teachers have also agreed that Ottman's ability to order his examples from the simple to the complex is another key to the book's long term success. Nancy Rogers, the book's new author, has added new vitality to the book, introducing exercises to develop creativity as well as to build basic skills. My Name Is Addyson

Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass is an 1845 memoir and treatise on abolition written by famous orator and former slave Frederick Douglass during his time in Lynn, Massachusetts[1]. It is generally held to be the most famous of a number of narratives written by former slaves during the same period.
