Leadership as a term and quality in people. The importance this essay lies in the reason it is assigned: to evaluate the student's ability to think analytically and gather information and put it down in a structured and organized order. It also shows the knowledge a scholar has, both academic and empirical.

Leadership and management often go together and as such dissertation topics in leadership and management correspond to both aspects. Although the characteristics are not necessarily the same- indeed, both correspond to different personality traits, yet they are complementary to each other.
