leadership than IQ. The authors believe that "the fundamental task of leaders...is to prime good feeling in those they lead. That occurs when a leader creates resonance—a reservoir of positivity that frees the best in people. At its root, then, the primal job of leadership is emotional." Primal Leadership gives us the path to great leadership.

Thus Daniel Goleman opens his Primal Leadership - Unleashing the power of Emotional Intelligence. A psychologist and scientific journalist, Goleman has dedicated his research activity to the link between emotions and leadership by developing the key concept of emotional intelligence (the title of his 1995 best seller), ie the ability to recognize one's own emotions, those of others and manage them to interact constructively with those around us.
