Learning from Las Vegas created a healthy controversy on its appearance in 1972, calling for architects to be more receptive to the tastes and values of "common" people and less immodest in their erections of "heroic," self-aggrandizing monuments. This revision includes the full texts of Part I of the original, on the Las Vegas strip, and Part II, "Ugly and Ordinary Architecture, or the Decorated Shed," a generalization from the findings of the first part on symbolism in architecture and the ...

In Learning from Las Vegas, architecture appears as “ decorated shed ” or “ duck ” . The former relies on imagery and signage to convey its program. The latter expresses its program and meaning in its form. If much of the then-dominant “ late Modernism ” eschewed ornament, prior architectures acted more as “ ducks ” .
