I don't know what to say, I just can't believe my life went this way. Things fell apart at all corners and I stood directly in the middle of it all. I cried and screamed but no one cared. They could hear me, yet no one cared. The only things I remember was my solitude coming out. Going Into the world so confident then coming out this broken. A woman so strong, destroyed by her own creation. She tried to cling onto a love that wasn't there. Over and over again, she got left behind until her heart gave out. She settled with someone more broken than herself. Her kids forced to watch her in her worse hours. She had a son that grew to hate her. Her own son, looked at her in shame. He grew to be a man so weak, that he got killed by his strengths. Things just happened, and he didn't know how to stop it. This is the story of my life. Welcome to a story of falling apart. It started with a relationship, that led to kids. The relationship grew weak. They couldn't get along, so they separated. Things happened along the way and other kids were born. It seems like a fairy tale, but not too long ago, there were rational people who ran the Republican Party. In these divisive times, we don't have very bright politicians to look up to anymore. How did the party of Lincoln become the party of right-wing nut-jobs? Republicans have gone crazy, who keep on convincing themselves that the Democrats are evil, and the Democrats with their ugly threats have become what they claim to hate. With SOCIETY IN REPAIR, it will prove that no one is immune to stupidity. As a whole nation, we have been divided so politically that we hate anyone who disagrees with our own personal views. But what if a common human emotion could unite America as a whole again... like humor? Society In Repair takes a non-partisan view on the issues that really matter. Issues including sexual abuse, climate change, drug addiction, and most importantly... why Americans have lost their sense of humor. The constant degradation of humanity in America shows a clear insight into these dramatic days of our Nation's life. Society In Repair is here to remind us what it means to be American, even though the American story has not always been great. But the belief in Americans of progress and change keeps America going in the darkest of times.

Many times in my adult life, I have had what I would call an "awake out-of-body experience."

During these times, I was peeking in at my life in a dream state; thinking this cannot be my life. I found myself asking the questions of what happened to the child who outsmarted the world and what happened to the teen who had all grief and loss beyond the answers and confidence to boot, and the young adult who never settled for can't. Well, somewhere along the way, the only thing left of who I was once was, were just shreds of an almost non-existent life. Now, don't get me wrong, there were some good times along the way, but it certainly was not always smooth sailing. But what came later in life was no comparison to the early years. Not that long ago, my life was filled with disappointment, brokenness, worry, anxiety, and fear. I survived breakups and breakdowns, sadness and pain, description, all of which led to a one-way ticket to Depression Central. Getting off the road to depression was very difficult for me, but there is no job too hard for God. If you can relate to the paralyzing despair that I went through, then please know that I fellowship with you and understand the grip depression and anxiety can have on your life. However, I want you to know that your destination does not have to be a one-way ticket to the land of despair, instead, your journey can bring you to a place of joy and peace if you simply trust and believe in God.

During fifteen seasons in the major leagues, Charlie O'Brien was battery-mate to thirteen pitchers who won the Cy Young Award, presented each year by the Baseball Writers Association of America. To put that accomplishment in perspective, Hall of Fame catchers Johnny Bench and Yogi Berra each worked with only one Cy Young winner during their careers. Legendary hurlers caught by O'Brien include such greats as Roger Clemens, Dwight Gooden, Bret Saberhagen, and Steve Bedrosian. O'Brien's The Cy Young Catcher, written with Doug Wedge, includes up-close views of the thirteen Cy Young Award-winning pitchers at their best . . . and occasionally at their worst. O'Brien shares an inside perspective on how catchers talk to umpires, what it's like to be on the receiving end of a 90-mph fastball, and how it feels to be in a clutch situation when the World Series is on the line. This authentic, down-to-earth memoir will not only delight baseball fans of all stripes, it will also provide keen insights into what separates the game's greatest competitors from the also-rans. "Eat Joy is the most lovely food essay book... This is the perfect gift." —Joy Wilson (Joy the Baker) Named a Best Cookbook of the Year by Martha Stewart Living "Magnificent illustrations add spirit to recipes and heartfelt narratives. Plan to buy two copies—one for you and one for your best foodie friend." —Taste of Home This collection of intimate, illustrated essays by some of America's most well-regarded literary writers explores how comfort food can help us cope with dark times—be it the loss of a parent, the loneliness of a move, or the pain of heartache. Lev Grossman explains how he survived on "sweet, sour, spicy, salty, unabashedly gluey" General Tso's tofu after his divorce. Carmen Maria Machado describes her growing pains as she learned to feed and care for herself during her twenties. Claire Messud tries to understand how her mother gave up dreams of being a lawyer to make "a dressed salad of tiny shrimp and avocado, followed by prune-stuffed pork tenderloin." What makes each tale so moving is not only the deeply personal revelations from celebrated writers, but also the compassion and healing behind the story: the taste of hope.
