Coordinated
checkpointing
eliminates the
domino effect by sacrificing a certain degree of process autonomy. In this paper, we propose the technique of lazy checkpoint coordination which preserves process autonomy while employing communication-induced checkpoint coordination for bounding rollback propagation. The introduction of the notion of laziness allows a flexible trade-off between the cost for checkpoint coordination and the average rollback distance. Worst-case overhead analysis provides a means for estimating the extra checkpoint overhead. Communication trace-driven simulation for several parallel programs is used to evaluate the benefits of the proposed scheme for real applications. Wang, Yi-Min and Fuchs, W. Kent Unspecified Center N00014-91-J-1283; NAG1-613... Construction Guide 2008 Lulu.com "From Karaoke to the Platters" is the inspirational tale of how Paul B Allen III went from singing in karaoke establishments, to become the lead singer of one of the greatest vocal groups of all time, The Platters (Only You; Smoke Gets In Your Eyes; The Great Pretender, etc.). Paul was not allowed entry into his elementary school chorus because of his "tin ear," so the trip from "reject" to lead vocalist was an incredible journey. Paul shares that journey, as well as all the things he did, step by step, that led him to performing at venues like the world-famous Kennedy Center, backed by the National Symphony Orchestra, and his singing for the rich and famous all around the world, including performing for the Royal Family in London, Prince Albert in Monaco, and being invited to the White House to perform for the President of the United States of America. This book is made up of two parts that are linked together by Paul's real-life experiences in the music industry, as an internationally published songwriter and as the lead vocalist of The Platters. Part One tells step by step how he did it (and how you can too), and Part Two tells what happened once he "arrived." It is a truly fascinating account that can only be told by someone who has lived the life. And as you read, you'll feel like you're living it right alongside of him.

David Garza did not set out to be a serial killer. The first victim fell into an accident because David did not know that his father's pistol had a hair trigger. With that under his belt, it seemed natural in a rage to take the life of one who had offended him. The third victim, a law officer, fell to a vicious cutthroat attack made in what he perceived to be self-defense. It just got easier each time.
