Life Expectancy Dean Koontz

On to "Life Expectancy". I paid more than I should have, It sounded like Koontz was back! I wish the blurb would have been longer, "When Jimmy Tock was born, a deranged clown shot the doctor and nurse and fled with his newborn. Now, 25 years later, Jimmy meets Puccinelli, the clown's son in a bank robbery where he plans to blow up the town." Life Expectancy by Dean Koontz - Books on Google Play Koontz shoots for a seriocomic horror novel and takes a dive. Following the failure of The Taking (2004), which began so brilliantly, then faded into Dullsville with an alien invasion, Koontz strives for high entertainment with a ton of witty dialogue, which fans may find passable but others will deem tiresome. The problem is that the story opens with murders in a maternity ward and a crazed ...
