Since about the age of 10, I have been a lover of horror, supernatural, and thriller novels. Thanks to my mom, I literally grew up on Stephen King, Dean Koontz, and Anne Rice. I remember reading (and suffering nightmares from) the Exorcist and the Amityville Horror way back " in the day Lineage by Joe Hart - Goodreads LINEAGE was exactly as advertised:a ghost story cum haunted house tale. It was my first by author Joe Hart but I'll most likely be buying some more. The writing was detailed and graphic, particularly the first part that tells that story of 10 year old Lance, his mother, and their ultra-sadistic and violent father/husband. I really like Joe Harts books this is the third I have read but not my favorite. It was a bit too long. Even though the little stories before the main story were really good the rest of the book didn't live up to what went before. I would still give this a read as Joe Hart is a very talented writer. Just be prepared to suspend belief towards the end!!
