The second compare and contrast essay sample is a simpler one, but still impressive. Here are the lessons you should learn from this paper. DO'S. Stick to the point: the author states all major points of comparison in the intro and sticks to the same order in his body parts. Keep it short and simple: the author conveys a lot of info in a few words. This is a great plus — especially for academic writing (yes, even if you are supposed to 'fill in' a lot of pages).

To make a chart, figure out what criteria you want to focus on in comparing the items. Along the left side of the page, list each of the criteria. Across the top, list the names of the items. You should then have a box per item for each criterion;

you can fill the boxes in and then survey what you've discovered.
