I enjoyed Martin's descriptive writing style, and the story of Long Way Gone is gentle and compelling. The way he describes music and musicians is beautiful, and I kept feeling the urge to sit down at the piano or break out in song. The last chapters drag with long stretches of dialogue, but in spite of that, I highly recommend Long Way Gone.

I couldn't wait to start. About this time, I showed my notebook to Dr. Shu. He was very impressed, and asked me if I would like to possibly turn it into a book raising awareness of the war in Sierra Leone. I was flattered, and said I would. That was how my book, A Long Way Gone, started, and how I got to where I am today.
