People would do anything to stay alive and protect their families. These examples give proof of Locke ' s idea that people will give up their " state of nature " to have laws and protections from others. In conclusion, both John Locke and Thomas Hobbes ' ideas can be proved correct in Ishmael Beah ' s novel, A Long Way Gone.

A long way gone was my first pick out off all the books for a lot of reasons so I figure to kick things off on our blog this would be a good way to express why I've chosen to read it. The idea of teenagers and kids just like us, fighting with real guns and shooting real people really intrigued me.

I couldn't wait to start. About this time, I showed my notebook to Dr. Shu. He was very impressed, and asked me if I would like to possibly turn it into a book raising awareness of the war in Sierra Leone. I was flattered, and said I would. That was how my book, A Long Way Gone, started, and how I got to where I am today.

A Long Way Gone: Memoirs of a Boy Soldier Summary

I enjoyed Martin's descriptive writing style, and the story of Long Way Gone is gentle and compelling. The way he describes music and musicians is beautiful, and I kept feeling the urge to sit down at the piano or break out in song. The last chapters drag with long stretches of dialogue, but in spite of that, I highly recommend Long Way Gone.
