Luther: Man Between God and the Devil: Amazon.co.uk ...

Heiko Oberman ' s book, Luther: Man between God and the Devil, explores Martin Luther ' s life, theology and legacy. Oberman does not simply focus on Luther ' s actions and behaviors as a Reformer, nor does he evaluate Luther from a purely Protestant or Catholic point of view. Instead, the book examines Luther ' s continual battle with the Devil.

Martin Luther: Man Between God and the Devil A second example to demonstrate Oberman ' s method of structuring Luther ' s context is his treatment of Luther ' s parents and his youth. While he only devoted part of a chapter to constructing the context of Luther ' s youth (82-97), his proceeding applications of Luther ' s parents ' influence shed new (at least new to this author) light on their extensive part in Luther ' s life.
