Maiden Voyage Tania Aebi

In May 1985, when Tania Aebi was 18 years old, she cast off from the docks of South Street Seaport in lower Manhattan and sailed 27,000 miles around the world—alone—on her Contessa 26, Varuna. Concerned about her lack of ambition, her father offered her this opportunity as an alternative to a college education, and she took him up on it.

Maiden Voyage is the story of an 18 year-old girl who decides that after graduation instead of going off to college like everyone else, she is going to sail around the world alone. Inexperienced and scared, Tania takes off from New York on May 28, 1985 and doesn't return until November 6, 1987.

Maiden Voyage by Tania Aebi - Goodreads

Tania Aebi is an American sailor. She completed a solo circumnavigation of the globe in a 26-foot sailboat between the ages of 18 and 21, making her the first American woman and the youngest person to sail around the world. Her record was not recognized by Guinness, because she sailed through the Panama Canal, which required assistance. She also sailed eighty miles with a friend in the South Pacific. Despite many challenges, Aebi accomplished her goal and proved to her father that she could comp
