This is different though because Ken Calliat's (with Steve Stiefel) Making Rumours: The Inside Story of the Classic Fleetwood Mac Album might just be the best rock and roll biography I have ever read; perhaps one of the best books period I have gotten into in a very long time. It might be Callait's easy manner, his perfect recall, the way he completely opens up about the mid 70s in California and brings the reader right along for the journey.
