For most of us, buying a home is the biggest purchase we will make in our lifetime. Some look to find a home that they can raise a family in, while others buy up houses to rent or sell as an investment. Whatever your reason is for buying a home, it would make sense to want to know everything you can about something that is going to affect you so much. I have found that in every instance where I took the time to teach my clients exactly what was happening at every step of the process, that real estate deal went much smoother than those instances where I did not. After recognizing the enormous benefits of teaching my clients this information, I realized that there are few learning tools available for those people who are not real estate professionals to learn all of the essential steps to successfully purchase a residential property. The few that I did find were quite general and did not really teach the individual how to buy a property. There were more "helpful hints" than actual how-to instructional books. Using my years of expertise and experience, I present this simple, step-by-step manual for buying any residential property, and more importantly; Avoiding Costly Mistakes!
