Consistency in the order, structure, and format of a paper allows readers to focus on a paper's content rather than its presentation. To format a paper in APA Style, writers can typically use the default settings and automatic formatting tools of their word-processing program or make only minor adjustments. The guidelines for paper format apply to both student assignments and manuscripts being submitted for publication to a journal.

The primary feature of the APA style is to include what is known as a running head. This part is a type of header at the top of each paper. It will include an abbreviated title of the work as well as the page number. On the title page of an APA paper, you will prefix this heading with the words Running head for identification. The title page will include your paper's full title in the absolute center and followed by your name and institution, also centered.
